KEYNOTE PRESENTATIONS

Paul Butler: Leadership & Teamwork

Former Chief of Police, Aynor Police Department, SC

Paul Butler is an internationally renowned speaker, presenter, instructor, and entertainer. He holds a Bachelor's Degree in Communication with a concentration in Culture and Communication, as well as an Associate's Degree in Criminal Justice. He excels in the areas of motivation, leadership, customer service, and attitude empowerment. During his 27 years of law enforcement, he has been a public servant, training officer, sergeant, crisis negotiator, chief of police, and chief deputy. These opportunities have given him a unique perspective on a vast array of situations and circumstances that many people find themselves in every day. These experiences have helped him to develop the answers to questions and cures to problems most people are facing at work and in life on a continual basis. Paul became chief of police of the Aynor Police Department at 22 years of age, making him the youngest police chief in the history of South Carolina.

Chief John Carli

Chief of Police, Vacaville Police Department, CA (Ret.)

Police Chief John Carli (Ret.) has 32 years of experience and is recognized as a progressive and innovative leader in law enforcement, promoting best practices in officer safety and wellness. Recognizing the gap between officers in crisis and the need for early prevention strategies, Carli embarked on implementing a radical culture shift to create psychological resiliency within first responders. John's preventive approach to promoting this culture of wellness led to his development of a unique "Law Enforcement Wellness App" that was recently highlighted at the Police Executive Research Forum (PERF) national town-hall meeting focusing on police officer suicides. As an outspoken advocate for the law enforcement profession, Carli's most relevant work focuses on national best practices in policing, community engagement, and officer safety and wellness.
